

The Annual Literacy Luncheon Project

Four Seasons Vail -

June 26, 2019

We are honored to welcome author Kirk Wallace Johnson to share excerpts from his novel, The Feather Thief, Beauty, Obsession, and the Natural History Heist of the Century. The strange but true story - called fascinating by the Wall Street Journal - leads readers from the 19th century scientific expeditions into the jungles of Malaysia to the "feather fever" of the turn of the last century. And it's a story that focuses on the feather-dependent Victorian art of salmon fly-tying and its present day practitioners, many of who lurk on-line in something called "The Feather Underground."

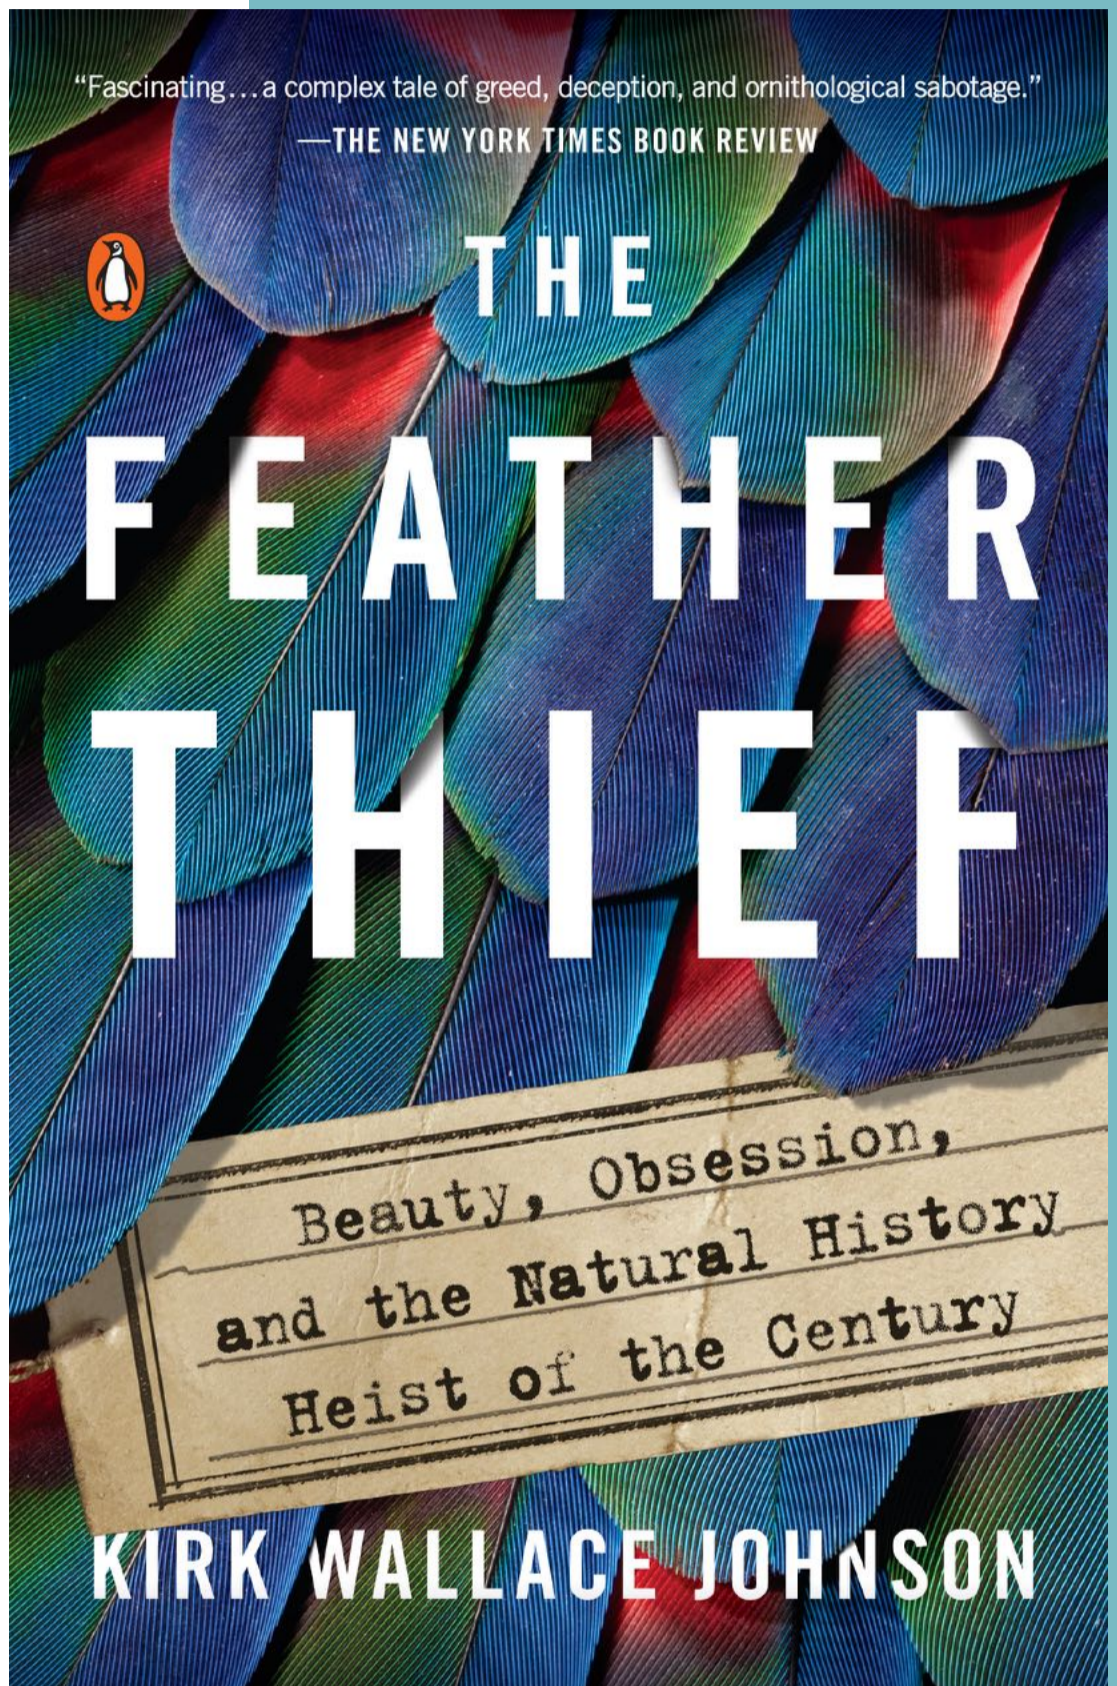

“Absorbing...
The Feather
Thief contains many of the elements of a classic thriller.”

from the first page to the last -
you won't be able to put it down.”

Need for Funding

The Literacy Project of Eagle County (TLP) is a non-profit organization based in Avon, Colorado that provides free tutoring to adults and children via volunteer tutors. The organization was founded and received its nonprofit designation in 1990 after an Eagle County School District task force identified parental illiteracy as a barrier to children's educational progress, especially in cases in which parents were unable to help their children with homework assignments. TLP served 20 individuals that first year, a number that has grown exponentially as the population of limited English speakers has grown in Eagle County.
